RIVER NEWS--The marks at the upper end of the wharf indicated nine feet of water in the channel last evening, and falling slowly.

The Express did not arrive from Parkersburg until noon yesterday, having been detained by fog Thursday night, and besides, she had a large amount of freight to take on board at the various landings, making the trip an immense one. She left on the return trip about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Petrolia, now in the Pittsburgh trade, was also detained by fog and did not reach here until after noon. She left on her return trip, also, about four o'clock.

The tug Collier, and barges, passed down yesterday. It is extremely doubtful whether she will reach her destination on the present rise.

The towboat Ed. Hobbs, left for St. Louis yesterday morning, with one barge loaded with Pittsburgh and Wheeling manufactures. At Louisville she will take in tow an empty barge left there by the Nail City, and proceed to St. Louis. The Nail City is now on her way up the river with iron for the mills here and in Pittsburgh.

The Kate Putnam did not arrive in time to leave for Cincinnati, yesterday afternoon, but will positively take her departure this day at 3 p. m.

Edwards to raise the Hudson were commenced in earnest, yesterday morning.
Five steam pumps and four syphons were put to work, and in an hour the water in the hold was lowered eighteen inches. At three o'clock she came to the surface, as stated in another paragraph.

THE LAST DITCH--During the war we heard a great deal about the "last ditch," but nobody seemed particularly anxious to get into it. The Belairites are having a hard time just now with ditches, and numbers of the good people of that place are dropping into them, without any special anxiety in that point. The town is literally trenched and re-trenched in almost every possible direction, and is almost a nightly occurrence to be aroused with cries for help from some unlucky one who has found a resting place in the bottom of a ditch. Men, women and children, horses, cattle and swine, cats, dogs, and representatives of nearly every species in the animal kingdom, have unwillingly found the "last ditch," or, at least, the last one into which they have tum-bled. Some of these mishaps have been attended with rather serious consequences, as we have heard of collar bones being broken, knees dislocated, and in one instance a valuable horse lost his life.
But there is a prospect that the water pipes which these ditches were dug, will soon be put down, and then these troubles will be at an end. We congratulate our friends in Belair that they will be long have complete deliverance from the annoyance of having their streets all torn up, and that an abundant supply of water will be furnished them, bright and pure, from the La Belle Riviere.

CIRCUIT COURT--There was but little done in this Court, yesterday, as the following report will show:

State vs. Edward McFarland, indicted for larceny--recognized to appear on the second day of the next term or forfeit one hundred dollars.

Supervisors of Ohio County vs. Edward McFarland--action brought on charge of barratry--defendant recognized to appear on day above mentioned under penalty of sum stated.

Bockley, Weld & Andrews vs. David Levi--tried, and judgment rendered in favor of plaintiffs for $213.74 with interest from last term, and costs.

Adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

POLICE COURT--The only case disposed of in the police court, yesterday morning, was that of James Johnson No. 2, charged with larceny about the Second Ward market house. A fine of one dollar was imposed, with costs, and in default of payment, the offender was sent to jail for five days.

The trial of John Winder and C. D.
Fleming, for disorderly conduct, did not come on in consequence of the absence of one of the witnesses. They had been summoned, but gave no heed to the mandate of the Court. Rates were directed to be issued against them returnable at 9 o'clock this morning, to which hour the cases were continued.

HATS AND CAPS--Messrs. Harper & Bro. are out in our columns this morning, announcing the receipt of another stock of hats and caps, of the latest styles and every shade of quality. This firm seems determined that if anybody in this region goes bareheaded, the responsibility shall not rest on them. Every taste and purse can be accommodated at their establishment, and we advise the hatless, or those well nigh in that deplorable condition, to go and supply themselves at the great hat and cap emporium of Messrs. Harper & Bro. See advertisement.

NOW IS THE TIME to secure your tickets in the Grand Gift Concert for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky.

tributed December 7th. Tickets or information can be had by applying to J.
V. L. Rodgers, No. 2 McClure House

Wharf.

PERSONAL--We met our friend, Sergt.
James A. Macanley, formerly Treasurer of this State, but now clerk in one of the Departments at Washington, on the por-tico of the Court House, yesterday. He is here with his family on a visit to relatives and friends, and will be in this neighborhood two or three weeks.
